ANOTHER GREAT LOT OF THOSE FIFTEEN DOLLAR SUITS FOR $9.95.

Remarkable? The word is weak. The Men's Clothing Store will be overrun with men who know a good thing when they see it. No tailor could give a better fit, and as for quality, well, you are at liberty to make your own comparisons. The layer Store doesn't ask you to compare these new mixed cassimers saits in grays, clives and checks, with anything less than what is recommended as "good value" at fifteen dollars. Not a chance lot of "sale" suits, but all sizes for tall and short, fat and thin

TREATY'S OPPONENTS TO SEEK ROYAL AID

Danish Landsthing Is Expected to Ratify Sale of West Indies All the Same.

Copenhagen, March 25.-The opponents of the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States intend to make a desperate effort to induce Queen Alexandra and the Dowager Empress of Russia, daughters of the King of Denmark, to intervene and prevent the ratification of the treaty by the Landsthing.

The Dowager Empress and the Queen, both of whom are reported to be opposed to the sale, are expected here in a day or

The opinion in well-infgormed circles is that any such intervention, even could it be set in motion, would prove ineffective. Confidence is felt that the Landsthing will ultimately ratify the treaty, though it may possibly insert a plebiscite clause.

The Langething, at a secret meeting to-day, arrived at no conclusion, and post-poned discussion of the treaty until April 3.

Eating a Question.

Pleasurable Anticipation,

When Proper Food is Used in Moderation.

If you are one of those who have eaten too freely of Grape-Nuts and have been satiated, we have a word of help and advice for you. It is a concentrated food, and the system requires and can handle only a small amount at a time.

If too much is taken, nature revolts against the overloading. Be moderate and erjoy the food day by day. It is too valuable to your system and to your sturdy health to give over. It is a common fault for people to overeat candy or any other delicacy at some time in life, and from an excess be driven to abstinence. But with Grape-Nuts it will richly repay you to start again on the fixed allowance of not more

OLEOMARGARINE BILL CAUSES SHARP DEBATE

Senator Money Says the Measure Is Protection Gone Mad for Benefit of Dairies.

Wanted to Know If It Wasn't a Fraud to Palm Off Oleomargarine as Butter - Wants Consumer Protected.

Washington, March 25 .- A sharp attack on the pending eleomargerine bill was made in the Senate to-day by Mr. Money of Mississippi. He denounced the measure as unconstitutional, immoral, dishonest and unjust." He said it was a proposition to tax out of existence one industry for the benefit of another and was "protection gone mad." On behalf of the working people of the country, he appealed to the Senate not to enact the bill into law, and declared if it could be voted on secret ballot it would not receive a dozen votes in the Senate. Mr. Hansbrough of North Dakota began an argument in support of the measure, but yielded the floor until to-morrow. Mr. Money of Mississippi, a minority member of the Committee on Agriculture, opened the debate in opposition to the measure. He declared that no such proposi tion as that contained in the pending bill ever had been incorporated in a measure enacted by Congress. "My conviction is."

said he, "that it is unconstitutional, immoral, dishonest and unjust." The great mass of the people, he said was not demanding the passage of the bill. "Protection Gone Mad."

The proposition presented is one in line with all protective measures, and only the people who desired the money of others desired the passage of this bill. "It is protection gone mad," he insist-

"It is protection gone mad," he insist-ed; "protection run clean crazy, and how the Senate can consider it calmiy is be-yond my comprehension."

Mr. Money declared he was speaking for a mass of working people of the country, who had no means of pressing their views and opinions upon Congress. It was a de-mand to deprive them of a wholesome articie of food—an article as good as butter, and in many respects better. He insisted that there was money behind the bill—money in the enhanced profits of the butter interests.

Mr. Money asserted that he did not think there was a man in the Senate who did not believe that the purpose of this bill was to xterminate the oleomargarine and butter ne industry for the benefit of the dairy in-

Spooner's Pointed Question Mr. Spooner interrupted to inquire if Mr. Money did not think it a fraud on the consumer to have oleomargarine palmed off up-

Money did not think it a fraud on the consumer to have oleomargarine palmed off upon him for butter.

"Yes, I do," replied Mr. Money; "but the Senator never has been injured by oleomargarine palmed off on him."

"I have not," replied Mr. Spooner, "but my wife has."

Mr. Money declared that if this bill could be voted for by a secret ballot, it would not get a dozen votes.

Mr. Hansbrough of North Dakota, a majority member of the Committee on Agriculture, speaking in support of the bill, denied that there was any attempt in the measure to destroy the oleomargarine industry. The bill simply provided that oleomargarine and kindred products should be put on the market for what they are, and not palmed off on the public for what they are not.

The measure, he said, was neither immoral nor dishonest.

Mr. Hansbrough bad scarcely opened his argument before the Senate, at 4:25, went into executive session, and at 4:37 adjourned.

COMMITTEE FAVORS CHINESE EXCLUSION.

Well as Islands, Including the Philippines and Hawaii.

Misdemeanor Will Cover Neglect | Willing to Rest Demand for Conof Officials to Designate Chinese Seeking Admission-Sailors Not Prohibited.

Washington, March 25.-The House Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day completed the consideration of the Chinese exclusion bill and by a practically unanimous vote ordered it favorably reported to the House. The measure has been most carefully considered for more than a month, and it comes from the committee with quite a number of changes. The exclusion of Chinese laborers is made complete, both as to the mainland territory of the United States and all insular possessions, including the Philippines and Hawali. The committee finally restored the prohibitory clause recommended by the Pacific Coast enators and membbers, so that as reported it reads: "And the prohibition shall apply to all Chinese laborers, as well as to those who were in such insular possessions at the time of acquisition by the United States, as to those who have come there since, and those who may be born there hereafter."

Enforcement of Law.
In addition the committee framed the following new section, specifically directing the Philippine Commission to put the ex-clusion law into force:

"That the Philippine Commission are hereby authorized and required to make all regulations necessary for the enforcement of this act in the Philippines." San Juan, Porto Rico, was stricken from the list of ports where Chinese may en-ter, as it was feared there would be a Chinese influx at that point owing to the lack of sufficient official force to make careful inspection. The other more important changes made by the committee are as follows:

Certificates of identification of Chinese must be accompanied by photographs at the expense of the Chinese. In addition to San Francisco and the other ports specifically mentioned for the examination and admission of certain Chinese, the Commis-sioner General of Immigration is authorized to designate such other ports as may be necessary.

The committee considered that the original inal bill was too severe in making it a fel-ony for any official to neglect to detail a Chinese person seeking admission, and pen alty was reduced to misdemeanor.

The original bill also subjected a vessel t forfeiture in case it brought over forbidden Chinese, but the committee changed this to a fine of $2,000 against the master or owner of the vessel, and forfeiture in case the fine is not paid.

or the vessel, and forfeiture in case the fine is not paid.

The committee struck out the clause requiring the United States District Attorney to be present at all deportation proceedings and requiring at least two credible withesses other than Chinese to establish the right to remain in the United States.

The prohibition against Chinese sailors on American ships was stricken out, thus permitting such Chinese sailors to be employed. The term Chinese was made to include all those who are Chinese by birth or descent, leaving out the references to mixed, etc. The committee also struck out the fee of $5$ to the United States Commissioner for passing on every case under the act.

In other respects the measure is practically the same as that agreed on by the Pactic Coast interests, with certain amendments made from time to time.

After reporting the bill on Thursday, Chairman Hitt is hopeful of bringing it to early consideration before the House.

TRAVELLERS' BURDENS LIFTED.

Agents Will Now See That They Are Properly Prepared for Their Journeys Over the Ocean.

Persons coming from the interior on their way to a trip at sea will now be provided for by agents, whose business it will be to see that they are properly located on board their steamships. At the pier, if they come over the New York Central Lines, they are met by a uniformed person, who takes entire charge of them. He sees that their baggage is checked, that they designate the trunks which are to go into the hold and the ones for their staterooms.

These agents also greet the passengers arriving from Europe. The baggage of the passengers is transferred to the New York Central Lines. They are advised about hotels; are advised on the subject of cab hire. Their transportation, their sleeping-car berths and all matters of that kind are carefully arranged for them.

This service is in the charge of two men of wide experience in the steamship business. Captain Louis ingwerson is major domo at the piers of the American, Cunard, White Star, Atlantic Transport, Anchor, Wilson and Allan-State lines, and Captain F. A. G. Schultze is at the North German Lioyd, Hamburg-American, French, Rotterdam, Red Star and Thingvalla line piers.—From the New York Herald.

Enforce an Order.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Quincy, Ill., March 25.—A sensation was created here this afternoon when it became known that Sheriff Roth would to-morrow morning issue an official proclamation, ordering all saloons closed hereafter on Sunday. This has not been attempted in Quincy for twenty years, when a temperance wave struck the community. There are 125 saloons in the city, and nearly all of them are members of the Saloonkeepers' Protective Organization, which promises to put up a big fight.

The saloonkeepers claim that Sheriff Roth is angry because he was defeated for County Treasurer at the Democratic primaries ten days ago, and that he alleges he was promised the support of the saloon men. The Sheriff is inaccessible, being at his farm near Camp Point. Enforce an Order.

PATRICK CASE GOES TO THE JURY TO-DAY

Laborers Barred on Mainland as Prosecutor Osborne Sums Up State's Evidence Against Alleged Murderer.

SPOONER'S POINTED QUESTION. FELONY CLAUSE MODIFIED. WOULD NOT CONSIDER JONES.

viction on Other Testimony -Sharp Words Pass Between Lawyers.

New York, March 25.-Assistant District Attorney Osborne summed up for the prosecution to-day in the trial of Albert T. Patrick, accused of the murder of William M. Rice. Mr. Osborne referred to what he called an attack on Captain Baker by Mr. Moore yesterday.

"I was never so much insulted," Mr. Os borne said, "and no jury was ever treated with so much contempt as Mr. Moore showed when he attacked the character of Captain Baker. There is nothing in the testimony, not a scintilla of evidence, against Baker.

Mr. Moore objected, and Recorder Goff told Mr. Osborne to confine himself to his

"Your honor should have stopped Mr Moore yesterday," Mr. Osborne protested. "He did not keep to the records; there was no word against Baker there." "Go on with your case," replied the Recorder.

"Mr. Moore said to you gentlemen," Mr. Osborne continued, turning to the jury, "that you must disregard the testimony of Jones. Well, I agree with him. Disregard Jones. Out of the door goes Jones. The case against Patrick is proved without the testimony of Jones. I will show the guilt of Patrick from the witnesses for the defense and out of the speeches of Mr. Moore and Mr. House."

Mr. Osborne declared that crime and criminals must be stamped out. "Crime is rampant," he said. "A condition of anarchy is growing. There was more anarchy in this courtroom during this trial than I ever saw before in my life. The very foundations of society were attacked by the behavior of counsel and their conduct of the case."

Discredits Meyer and Short.

Discredits Meyer and Short.

The testimony given by the witnesses to the 1900 will, Meyer and Short, the prosecutor contended, should not be believed. Emphasis was placed on the point that Doctor Curry had declared Rice to have been of sound mind and in full control of his faculties till death.

Mr. Osborne, toward the last of his argumuent, spoke of the medical experts. He said he was willing to rest his case on the testimony of Doctor Austin Flint, the leading expert for the defense. The Assistant District Attorney explained that he referred to Doctor Flint's answer that he could not tell what caused the congestion of the lung. He considered that reply as corroborative of the testimony of Doctor Hamilton Williams, who said he could find no cause for the congestion, and attributed it to a gaseous irritant, such as chloroform.

In his concluding remarks Mr. Osborne declared that no matter where the jury took up the discussion of the case they would find Albert T. Patrick at the bottom of every suspicious circumstance.

"Now, I want to say, in justice to Baker."

would find Albert T. Patrick at the bottom of every suspicious circumstance.

"Now, I want to say, in justice to Baker," he said, "that Captain McCluskey made the charge of forgery against Patrick and I (Osborne) made the charge of murder. It is absurd to say that Baker had anything to do with it."

Recorder Goff will charge the jury tomorrow, and some time before night the jury will begin consideration of the testimony they have heard during the last eight weeks.

IDEA FOR PERPETUAL MOTION. Concession Asked for Gigantic Flue on Fair Site.

Charles Wondries of Chicago has applied to the World's Fair management for a concession, which, he claims, will enable him to demonstrate to the world that he has discession, which, he claims, will enable him to demonstrate to the world that he has discovered the secret of perpetual motion. He claims that his invention will free the sewers of large cities from sewer gas. The invention is founded on the simple idea that a current of air passing upward through a shaft or flue, open at the top and also at the bottom, may be utilized in developing the necessary power to run machinery and as the current never ceases, it's application to machinery practically supplies perpetual motion to the latter.

Mr. Wondries proposes to the World's Fair management the erection of a circular steel shaft 1,050 feet high, 200 feet in diameter at the base and 75 feet at the top. It is to be divided into three stories about 300 feet in height, provided with observation promenades. The first of these will be reached by an endless chain of steel cars moving up and down and around the tower on an inclined track. He suggests about 300 cars, which will be capable of carrying between 7,600 and 8,000 passengers.

The current of air draft through this gigantic shaft will, Mr. Wondries claims, create fifty to sixty horse power, which will be applied to machinery in an adjoining building. By means of this power he intends to run an elevator from the base to the summit of his tower and to develop electric light for its entire illumination.
